Welcome to the European Academy of Childhood Disability (EACD)

The EACD is an academic association of professionals working with children with disability throughout Europe.

It currently has over 633 members who are specialists, psychologists, occupational therapists, speech therapists, social workers, schoolteachers.

Over 35 countries are represented.

To promote teaching and facilitate sharing of information, research and good practice, the European Academy of Childhood Disability has set up a separate EDUCATION website with different learning resources, video titles, publications and meeting archives.
